

Lomita Club To Hear Talk On Fuchsias

J. H. Hoag of Arcadia will be guest speaker at the meeting of Lomita Fuchsia Club at 7:30 this evening in California Hall, on Lomita boulevard.

Topic will be "Care of Fuchsias in winter and spring." Slides of fuchsia specimens will illustrate the talk.

John Ericson, president, will conduct the business meeting, which will feature election of a nominating committee.

Sorority Plans for New Year

When members of Tau Delta Omega sorority met recently at the home of Mrs. Martha Coburn, 1908 Arlington avenue, plans were made for the coming year and ways and means projects were discussed.

After the business meeting, an enjoyable evening was spent playing cards, prizes going to Kay Sheldon and Jackie Coburn. Refreshments were served.

Sorority Hears Book Review At Torrance Luncheon Meet

"The Miracle of Carville," a story of a leper colony, by Betty Martin, was reviewed by Miss Mabel Schulte at the recent luncheon meeting of Los Angeles Alumni Chapter of Delta Sigma Epsilon. Setting for the meeting was the Annapolis avenue home of Mrs. Alma C. Smith.

An effective red and green color scheme was followed for the luncheon, and arrangements of poinsettias accented the holiday motif.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Doris Chamberlin.

The new book is the personal story of the author and her life in the government hospital at Carville, La. Work among the patients of this hospital is one of the major social service projects of the sorority, according to Mrs. Smith.

Members attending were Marie Hudson, Lila Farmer, Lowell Speidel, Doris Chamberlin, Jo Finch, Alpha Siegfried, Leota Smith, Alaska Davis, The Irma Horn, Ada Gamble, Verna Henderson, Pearl Blunt, Mabel Schulte, Margaret Bryant, Bill Butler and Rosamond French.

Guests included Minnie Bell Edwards of the Pasadena chapter and Margaret Allard of Long Beach chapter.

Girl Scout Installation

In an effective installation ceremony performed by the touring president, Shirley Moody, Jané Gately, recently elected to serve as president of Girl Scout Troop 610, and her staff were seated. Leader and co-leader of the Nativity Church-sponsored troop are Mrs. Rose Jones and Mrs. Clare Schweifek.

A program of tap dancing, piano numbers, "group" singing and a clever skit added to the enjoyment of the affair.

Installed to serve with Jané during the new term were: Rose Marie Morris and Mary Moore, vice-presidents; JoAnne Weber, secretary; Kathleen Moore, assistant secretary; Patricia Green, treasurer; Mary Schott, assistant treasurer; Pauline Lupo and Antoinette Strehlich, flag bearers; Sue Gately and Carol Armstrong, color guards.

CDA's Set Annual Card Party, Reception for New Members

The annual card party, set for Monday, January 29, at 8 p.m., in the parish hall was discussed Monday evening at the business session of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America. A large committee has been placed in charge of this major ways and means project, with Mrs. Lyle O'Hara and Mrs. Joseph Lucas as co-chairmen.

Also on the agenda is a reception for new members, scheduled for next Monday evening at parish hall.

Presiding was Mrs. J. J. MacDonald, the grand regent, who called on the following chairmen for reports: Mesdames Bernard Harwood (program), Frank J. Farrell (ways and means), Margaret O'Toole (sunshine and sick), and M. N. Felker (social welfare). Mrs. Felker displayed a cartoon scrap book made by Mrs. Jay T. Bailey for patients in the court's ward in Harbor General Hospital.

Refreshments were served by the hostess committee, Mesdames O'Hara, Lucas C. J. Flynn, Albert Elder and the Misses Rosa and Katherine Orman.

Our great Way-shower, steadfast to the end in his obedience to God's laws, demonstrated for all time and peoples, the supremacy of good over evil, and the superiority of spirit over matter. — Mary Baker Eddy

Torrance Bethel Will Join In Feting Grand Guardian

Guardians, associate guardians, their promoters of hospitality, and honored queens representing Torrance, Lomita, Gardena, Compton betheled met Sunday at the Andros avenue home of Mrs. Mildred Edwards, deputy grand guardian of the district.

Also present was Mrs. Nelle Montague, deputy grand guardian of Compton district.

Purpose of the meeting was to plan for the Torrance visit on Tuesday, February 6, of the Grand Guardian of the State of California, International Order of Job's Daughters, Mrs. Zelma McCauley. In preparation for the official visit the combined betheled will hold a practice Sunday, February 4, at 1 o'clock at Torrance Masonic Temple.

The Beech avenue home of Mrs. Howard McDonald was the setting for the January meeting of Job's Daughter's Guardian Council conducted by Mrs. Edna Babcock, guardian.

Principal business was a review of the term's plans submitted by the newly installed queen of Bethel 50, Miss Donna Pat Wolf.

Miss Wolf reviewed her approved plans Monday evening with her line officers at a meeting held in her Halldale avenue home.

Choir practice for Bethel 50 was held Tuesday evening at the Sonoma avenue home of Mrs. Charlotte Robison, with Miss Sydney Young directing. Assisting was Miss Donna Wolf, honored queen of the bethel.

Dinner Party Compliments Newlyweds

Pale pink and green accented a tropical table decoration of fruits, delicate shell nut cups and tall tapers for the recent dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Evans of 1655 W. 216th street. Guests of honor were Mrs. Evans' son, Donald McDougall, and his bride, the former Beverly Joyce Campbell of Long Beach.

Other dinner guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Donald McDougall, Dale McDougall, William Blake and Harry Evans, Mesdames Helen Turrentine, Ina Lowe and Dawn Hasty, all of Long Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Goldsmith of Pasadena.

A Special Message to Housewives
We have said a great deal about our Self-Service Departments... especially our Fresh Meat Department. Now we would like to repeat and emphasize that we have RE-TAINED our regular butcher shop along with our Self-Service Fresh Meat Dept. You will find union butchers on duty constantly to cater to your special needs. They will gladly cut any meat to your order... grind meats to your specifications... just feel free to ask them to do any of the services you are accustomed to in our regular butcher shop. Remember that the Self-Service Fresh Meat Dept. is only an addition to our Regular Butcher Shop for those who prefer to stop Self-Service.
